

Application Terms and Conditions

Seattle Genetics is proud to support scientific, educational, community and other charitable activities designed to improve professional education, patient care and disease awareness. Seattle Genetics provides such support in strict conformity with applicable laws and regulations. By submitting this request for financial support, your organization hereby agrees to comply with the following terms and conditions in the event that Seattle Genetics approves the request:

- Seattle Genetics support is not intended to reward or influence, and is not contingent upon, your organization's purchase, prescription, or recommendation of Seattle Genetics products.
- Any support that Seattle Genetics may provide is solely for the purposes of a bona fide program or study described in the application and may not be used for any other purpose.
- For projects involving scientific and educational programs, your organization will exercise full control and discretion over the content of such programs and the selection of faculty, speakers, and participants. Accredited medical education programs must comply with current ACCME or other relevant accrediting organization rules. Non-accredited educational programs that relate to Seattle Genetics or competing products must be independent of industry influence based upon the factors described in the FDA's Guidance for Industry on Industry-Supported Scientific and Educational Activities.
- For investigator-sponsored trials, the proposed research is in compliance with applicable laws, FDA guidelines and regulations (Code of Federal Regulations, Good Clinical Practices, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Declaration of Helsinki (1996), and all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations).
- Disclosure will be made to participants that Seattle Genetics has provided financial support for the activity and, if applicable, whether any unapproved uses of products will be discussed.

In submitting your application and agreeing to these terms, you represent that you have the power to enter into this agreement on behalf of your organization and that all information provided in this request for financial support is accurate and complete.
